The Herald

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING BY THE WASHINGTON HERALD COMPANY Telephone MAIN 3300 1322 New York Avenue.

CLINTON T. BRAINARD, President and Editor. FOREIGN REPRESENTATIVES SUBSCRIPTION RATES BY CARRIER: SUBSCRIPTION RATES BY MAIL: $3.00 per year $2.40 per year Entered at the postoffice at Washington D. C. as second-class mail matter

By JOHN KENDRICK BANGS.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 9, 1915.

for The Washington Herald.

IMMUNE.

By woes beset I still shall be Of Care and all her vassals free. Pecause however great their din I never let them get within. And troubles cannot well abide If only they are left outside. (Copyright, 1915.)

be made to clear him.

a lot of trouble-when he invented the submarine. It requires no great stretch of the imagination to between the Pasha-who is on the ground-and Winston Churchill-who is safe in England.

In an election for five members of the Illinois Supreme Court, the Republicans elected four. We shall expect to hear the Democrats explain which you do not feel at liberty to use." that the result was influenced by strictly local issues while the Republicans insist that the party has won a great triumph that foreshadows what will

Those who have represented Col. Roosevelt as lect of an opportunity is what troubles him. Acpastor of the Shawmut Congregational Church, cession of every point made by President Wilson in of State. Nevertheless, Bryan at large is a facthe pending discussion may not detract from Ger- tor for the Democracy to reckon with. His resigman military efficiency, but it certainly puts the nation is an incident of little consequence as refoolscap on the German state department.

The Comptroller of the Treasury has ruled that to employe of the civil service may enlist in the United States naval reserve because the law does not permit any one to draw two salaries from the government. It would seem that the perience, not having any but the vaguest concepaw relating to the naval reserve should be amend- tion of the magnitude of the event in which they ed to enable employes of the civil service to serve humbly participated. Business men and men disin the naval reserve without additional compen- tinguished for great financial achievement had only sation. Surely no law should be permitted to stand the dimmest conception of the magnitude and charthat puts a handicap on patriotism.

spokesman of his Teutonic brethren in America— thick of great events cannot tell the story and some of whom have taken the trouble to repudicannot write the history at least until years have become of whom have taken the trouble to repudicannot write the history at least until years have become of whom have taken the trouble to repudicannot write the history at least until years have brotherman without running the risk of doing Vermont. George F. Edmunds, should rides around. Louisville Courier-Journal of thick of great events cannot tell the story and aire-philanthropists who really care to help their it happened that this young lawyer of take on a few paying passengers as he brotherman without running the risk of doing Vermont. George F. Edmunds, should have secured a seat in the United States. ate his efforts in their behalf-Herman Ridder elapsed. The thought is commonly expressed by has recently a sumed the responsibility of warn- the statement that the perspective is too near. ing this coun. . that in the event of open rupture with Germany the Irish in America would United States at this time. Not even the great prove to be troublesome. Now that Dr. Dern- financiers fully realize the magnitude of the burg is no longer in working order, it is up to events now in progress in the United States, us to cherish the delectable intransigeant of the Some see dimly but not very far into the future. Staats-Zeitung most tenderly.

"This war will last two or three years more," predicts Henry M. Pindell, of Peoria, Ill., who everywhere, esigned the ambassadorship to Russia not long after he was appointed by President Wilson, and are handling the stupendous currents which are who has just returned from Europe. "I believe bringing funds into the United States speak of this hat peace now would be premature. They have movement. This caution in speaking is not wholly got to settle this quarrel so that there will be due to motives of prudence, nor is it an expression a permanent peace, and the time for that has exclusively of the secrecy with which great finannot yet come. It is best, for the future, to let cial undertakings are conducted. It is also due to them fight it out." It may not be best either the fact that the enormous and marvelously swift for present or future to "let them fight it out," currents bearing funds that are flowing this way but as nothing can be done to stop them, there tend almost to stagger the imagination. There is is no alternative.

regular army to the position, which is to become business stagnation have become almost moribund. doubly important because of the War Depart-

The Break in the Cabinet.

The Secretary of State has resigned from President Wilson's Cabinet because no other course was open to him; hence it cannot now be said, as it might if he had retired two months ago, that he has done his greatest service to his counworld is told why on the instant, in clear cut English. It is because the President of the United States, with the approval of every member of his Cabinet but one, has determined to uphold the nation's honor with the whole force at his command, while that one-the one who has sat at the head of the council table-has adopted as his own separate policy that of peace at any price. The fact stands out clearly that Mr. Wilson and Mr. Bryan realized that there was but one remedy for the situation and it little matters who took the initiative. There is a suggestion in Mr. Bryan's letter of resignation, however, of a reluctance to quit, and it appears to breathe the faintest hope that the President would yield that Mr. Bryan might remain. Loftily proclaiming that take effect when the note is sent, unless you prefer an earlier hour." And the very prompt acencouraging the impression that he would prefer an earlier hour. These are details, however, which, while interesting are now unimportant.

As for the effect of Mr. Bryan's resignation. let any misgivings as to the impression it will at home were tired of the contest, and of reasoning can the Berlin government find in this part of the world as well as where they comfort in the event. The President and nine comfort in the event. The President and nine meant, for the mere sake of peace, to be caught. They bear up and down the long sea. If the moneys spent upon their own as Parliament ruled, by keeping control of the moneys spent upon their own as parliament ruled, by keeping control of the moneys spent upon their own as parliament ruled, by keeping control of the moneys spent upon their own as parliament ruled, by keeping control of the moneys spent upon their own as parliament ruled, by keeping control of the moneys spent upon their own as parliament ruled, by keeping control of the moneys spent upon their own as parliament ruled, by keeping control of the moneys spent upon their own as parliament ruled, by keeping control of the moneys spent upon their own as parliament ruled, by keeping control of the moneys spent upon their own as parliament ruled, by keeping control of the moneys spent upon their own as parliament ruled, by keeping control of the moneys spent upon their own as parliament ruled, by keeping control of the moneys spent upon their own as parliament ruled, by keeping control of the moneys spent upon their own as parliament ruled, by keeping control of the moneys spent upon their own as parliament ruled, by keeping control of the moneys spent upon their own as parliament ruled, by keeping control of the moneys spent upon their own as parliament ruled, by keeping control of the moneys spent upon their own as parliament ruled, by keeping control of the moneys spent upon their own as parliament ruled, by keeping control of the moneys spent upon their own as parliament ruled, by keeping control of the moneys spent upon their own as parliament ruled, by keeping control of the whates the control of the money and parliament ruled of the contest of the money and parliament ruled of the contest of the money and parliament ruled of the members of his Cabinet stand firmly for a policy that demands that the rights of the nation shall Wall Street seems to be framing up to ask the be respected by the world, and that its honor public to believe that Germany is bidding against shall be kept unsullied. The tenth member stands the allies for the purchase of the Bethlehem Steel isolated for apology and conciliation and takes leave of the administration as the people applaud. For by this time Germany must know that the So far Harry Thaw has escaped from the American people are giving their President their movies, but as a first pager he makes every one whole hearted support and are prepared to make else an also ran. Next week another attempt will any sacrifice that may be demanded of them to the to get there. Each year brings its new tragedies their end that American tradition shall not be tarnished but shall shine with a new luster. That is the mes-The late Jules Verne became responsible for sage that will go to Germany and it is susceptible of no misinterpretation.

It is not inconceivable that many thoughtful put upon him the blame for Mr. Bryan's resigna- persons will find today another question which they will regard as of greater importance than the effect of Mr. Bryan's resignation in Germany "The Straits can't be forced," declares Enver And this question is what its effect will be on Pasha, the Sultan's war minister. Thus it be- the campaign of President Wilson for resimple question of difference of opinion election. Will Mr. Bryan seek to wrest the nomination from him? He writes in his letter of resignation: "It falls to your lot to speak officially for the nation: I consider it to be none the less my duty to endeavor as a private citizen to promote the end which you have in view by means Quite likely this refers merely to a course of Chautauqua lectures on the blessings of peace at any price. Even Mr. Bryan must realize that a Lappen in 1916. The mystery is how they will campaign for nomination or election to any public back up their assertions, but perhaps they won't office with that even as a minor issue would be to invite ridicule. But, out of the Cabinet and a private citizen again with the national convention a year off, will the perpetual candidate be able to eager for war have done him an injustice. Neg- bridle his ambition for once, or will he go about his old, hopeless quest on some newly invented iscording to the Rev. Dr. E. Ellsworth Shumaker, sue, creating dissension in the ranks of his party? To what extent he might succeed in this direction of Boston, the Colonel does not approve of war, would depend almost wholly upon the outcome of but he thinks we have missed a fine opportunity. the crisis in our foreign relations. With success. Note the difference?

Achieved by the wise statesmanship and firm foreign policy of President Wilson, Democrats was in Bismarckian days, the German imperial government would not be in the plight in which it government would not be in the plight in which it states and firm foreign policy of President Wilson, Democrats was of policy of a boom. In their his friends in this city, Gen. Grant once and firm form of a boom. In their his friends in this city, Gen. Grant once and the said that when he was in public life that there is a lack of foresight. Already, feel that there is a lack of foresight. Already, would be deaf to any words of Mr. Bryan. The several times, San Diego has been overboomed, what it reverse is a picture the country is not called upon the had never found reason to be sorry that he had placed confidence in Massachuston of these there were only three men upon who he several times, San Diego has been overboomed. After quick rises in prices for real estate there were only three were only three men upon who he several times, San Diego has been overboomed. After quick rises in prices for real estate there had placed confidence in the vacancy, and the choice was enthusiant to contemplate no matter what might be its in The providence of the wise statesmanship and firm form at the wise of the sent when was so prominently associated with this city. Gen. Grant once the said that when he was in public life that there is a lack of foresight. Already, the Sent when we he wild that when he was in public life the when he was in public life the said that when he was the only the citizens of the said that when he was no public life the said that when he was no public life that there is a lack of foresight. Already, the Sent when the said that when he was no public life that there is a lack of foresight. Already, the Sent when the said that when he was no public life that there is a lack of foresight. Already, the Sent when the said that when he was on public life that there is a lack of foresight. Already, the S now finds itself. Herr von Jagow's practical con- fluence upon the fortunes of the former Secretary lated to our differences with Germany.

Momentous Events of Today.

Soldiers who fought in great battles were afterwards able to speak only of their own narrow exacter of the business changes which began in the latter part of President McKinley's first adminis-Not content with being the self-constituted tration. Soldiers and financiers who are in the

Something of that kind is in progress in the All realize that new influences, new inspirations, new conditions which are to be of momentous importance to the United States are now prevailing

It is almost with bated breath that those who some realization that whatever world changes may come after the war in Europe is ended the United Since Col. William E. Harvey is not at all States is likely to be less embarrassed by the pensager to be appointed brigadier general command- alties which follow war than any other nation. ing the District of Columbia National Guard, There is also some understanding of the economic without a brigade to command, the way is open principle which lies at the bottom of the distributo a compromise between the two factions-if tion of the stupendous funds throughout the United it is true there are two factions in the guard- States. Ultimately they must stimulate going inby the appointment of a retired officer of the dustries and also quicken many which in the recent

There is also good understanding of the fact ment plans to make the District militia a model that we stand today too near these momentous for the rest of the country. There is no sound impulses, fully to appreciate them. And yet underreason why a veteran of the Spanish war should lying this somewhat vague feeling there is conbe chosen and there is no indication that there sciousness that the United States is now entering is any general demand among members of the upon an era in which we are likely to become chief guard that such a selection be made. With the material and facilities which would be at his command a regular army officer of experience and executive ability would find little difficulty in bringing the District militia up to a standard that would fully meet the expectations of the War Department.

There is nothing psychological about Atland moral, and one of the world, both material and moral and one of the best of the evidences that conditions of unembed moral, and one of the best of the evidences that our material growth is to be in sympathy with of his pasteurized-milk depots. Since December that conditions of unembed moral, and one of the best of the evidences that our material and moral advance which will be of beneficial influence of his pasteurized-milk depots. Since December that conditions of unembed moral, and one of the best of the evidences that unnecessary to continue the t-cent meals at any of his pasteurized-milk depots. Since December that would fully meet the expectations of the world is the predominant feeling in the United States that this country is neither for or against Germany, nor for or against Eng land and her allies, but is for humanity and that all the people are living in the hope that humanity will triumph in the end throughout the world.
War Department.

Land Booming. By JOHN D. BARRY.

try. For once a break in a Cabinet occurs and the ingly pleasant. The climate was all it had been said to be. Every one had the air of being prosperous No one accosted me for money in the streets till the fifth day, and he, too, was well dressed. Was there no real poverty here? I asked the question of lady who had lived in San Special Notice—These articles are fully protected under the copyright laws, which impose a severe penalty for infringement by use either entire or in part.

poverty," she said, "the kind that shows itself in the large cities. But there is a good deal of what is to me one of the most terrible kinds of poverty, the kind that hides itself and puts on a very respectable appearance. There he is unable to join in the transmission of the that shows itself in the large cities. But there is of salaries. A Line o' Cheer Each Day o' the Year. note to Germany, he tenders his resignation "to a good deal of what is to me one of the most ter-First printing of an original poem written daily ceptance by the President might be regarded as are many people here that are half-starving in one demands had been refused. room and cooking what they cat over a gas lamp. Most of them have come out here from the Middle which kept all officers of the crown de-West or the East, and they've been lured out by for maintenance while in office. the attractive advertisements. They think that as soon as they get here they're going to have an easy interest of the King and the proprietors at home were tired of the contest, and every year to the misty, perilous banks at home were tired of the contest, and

> It is, of course, creditable that people should love the place they live in and that they should wish to see it prosper. Even where their interest is to see it prosper. Even where the prosper is to see it prosper. Even where the prosper is to see it prosper. Even where the prosper is to see it prosper. Even where the prosper is to see it prosper is to see the place they live in and that they should wish largely or wholly selfish there may be credit. For little beyond the bare necessaries of life, terous and firm sagacity of English enter the success of one member of the community led the rest of the colonies in the may contribute to the prosperity of the community variety of her industries. may contribute to the prosperity of the com munity as a whole, provided, of course, it adds, not fictitious, but real values. But overbooming is a distinct mischief, both to the place, the people there and the people who make great sacrifices to San Diego and to other parts of California as well. For the whole State has been overboomed. One result is the severity of the problem of the unemployed. Those who have been at a disadvantage elsewhere or have failed are led to believe they can be easily successful here. they arrive, greatly to their surprise they meet similarly hard conditions or even harder. And their new hardships are complicated strangeness of the associations, by the sense of

On the other hand, of course, there is the supreme consolation of climate. If I had to live in etreme want I should much prefer to live in warm and glowing Southern California or in equable Sar Francisco than in the Middle West or the East, with their fearful winter rigors. On the surface it seems curious that the poor don't migrate great bodies to this part of the world; but, for the poor, migrating is serious business, involving the A Brilliant Son of the Green Moun-The best most of them necessity of expenditure. can do is to stay put. Besides, the truth is that in communities that boom, the extremely poor are not wanted. They would have some difficulty in breaking in. The desirable citizens are those that have money to spend for the purchase of teal his tour around the world, he became United S estate and for the raising of land values by their very free and frank when in conversapresence and by their other purchases.

been hit by the hard times of the past few months.
And long before the war things here were pretty dull. Now the real estate people are on the alert. And long before the war things here were pretty dull. Now the real estate people are on the alert. They feel that the exposition means their harvest time and they have adopted a policy of making the most of their chances by encouraging quick sales and by bunching their sales whenever they can to create the effect of a boon. In their his friends in this city, Gen. Grant once that imperative as part of his interest in the mane of the United States a retainer to a young lawyer, George F. Edmunds, who, although only 35 years of age, had with perfect freedom, and if he was gained State-wide prestige for ability. Mr. Edmunds carried on the legal proceedings and was so prominently associated with this case that when, two have been great depressions. Fortunes have been in any one of these three men.

made and fortunes have been lost. Not in this them was Hamilton Fish, who was Secured and fortunes have been lost. Not in this them was Hamilton Fish, who was Secured to the was fearly of State in Grant's administration; or Republicans.

Way is healthy growth encouraged. The best building another was George S. Boutwell.

What San Diego needs most of all is a large that San Diego needs most of all a large population in the outlying districts, a population in the outlying districts, a population that it will depend on and that will depend on it. The land is there, rich land, too, vast stretches, fairly calling to the disinherited of the world to come and settle. But when the disinherited actually arrive here what do they find? Helping ally arrive here, what do they find? Helping By no means. If they are without money fore undesirable citizens. Many of them do be-come undesirable or far less desirable than they of that body, although in personal apthey soon learn that they are expensive and there- When he entered the Senate he was unmight have been if provided with a fair chance to use their energy and their intelligence on the land under conditions that gave them encourage-

It seems to me that there is a splendid opportunity in Southern California for those millionharm either to the brotherman or to themselves. It lies in those vast stretches of land that might be Senate when he was under 10 years of sold for small holdings and paid for on easy terms, age and should instantly have gained the Like the best kind of philanthropy, like all philanthropy, this enterprise ought to be profitable to every one concerned. But it is just the kind of enterprise that the real estate men of San Diego don't seem to be interested in.

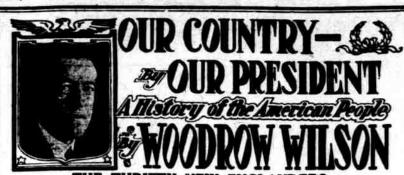

And the situation is reproduced under different And the situation is reproduced under different in 1884, a predatory band, falsely alleg-conditions in so many parts of this country. Just ing that they represented the Confeder-Widow Brown. now an immense amount of booming is going on, acy, passed over the Canadian border, to the last degree unscientific. If inhabitants are so valuable, why treat them as if they were merely geese to be plucked? There surely is a better way in utilizing them to the full extent of their worth, which does not lie alone in the amount of their money. What a chance those wide stretches of territory offer for colonization schemes where the vast numbers of people now struggling on the edge of want and disaster, meeting the extremities of cold and heat, might be encouraged not theoretically, but practically encouraged, work together and to form communities. Perhaps some millionaire will come along and take an interest in booming humanity with the help of the which is humanity's inheritance, placing the emphasis on the rise, not in land values, but in Wouldn't he, after all, get nearer to the truth of the matter?

Let Them Alone.

Of course Dr. Dudley A. Sargent, Harvard's physical culture expert, is right when he says that men (some women) could be trained for military duty just like men, but if the question were submitted to a referendum, whether of men or women or both, the decision would be overwhelmingly in favor of not disturbing the present status of the gentler sex as mothers, sisters, cousins, wives and sweethearts.—New York Sun.

Better Times In New York.

There is nothing psychological about Nathan

THE THRIFTY NEW ENGLANDERS. Published by a special arrangement with the President through

The McClure Newspaper Syndicate (Copyright, 1901, 1902, by Harper & Brothers.) (Copyright, 1915, by The McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

gave it careful attention. N every colony the chief point of trade kept 600 vessels busy plying to and

They could get only annual grants

There had long been signs that min-variety of her industries.

Though parliamentary statutes forbade the making of woolen goods or hats or steel for export, the colonists were free to make anything they might need for use or sale within a single colony or in their homes, and the thrifty New England farmers and villagers made most of their own furniture, tools, and household utensils, while their wemen or the village weavers wove the linen and woolen stuffs of which their clothes were made.

Though parliamentary statutes forbade the making of woolen goods or hats or steel for export, the colonists were free ple who are still, as it were, but in the gristle, and not yet hardened into the bone of manhood."

Massachusetts had been known, while peace held and men breathed freely, between Queen Anne's and King George's wars, to complete 150 ships in a single wars, to complete 150 ships in a single war, every town upon the coast and even little villages far within the rivers launching vessels from busy shipyards.

They lived upon their own resources gave it careful attention.

"There isn't much squalid poverty," she said, "the kind the large cities. But there is a large sale of salaries.

Nevery colony the chief point of trade kept on vessels busy plants to trade kept on the trade kept on the trade kept of t every one knew who knew anything at Edgar C. Clark and Mrs. Clark and Miss Helen Clark have taken possession of the all about New England that her seamer were as daring, shrewd, and hardy as those bred in past generations in the country place which they have leased at Devonshire ports of old England.

Their boats flocked by the hundreds There was, too, more and more money the coasts of Africa and Brazil, far in the colonies as the years went by.

"Neither the perseverance of Holland," Smith in the presence of about forty where except in the rich." "Neither the perseverance of Holland," guests. The house was elaborately dec-as no other colonists did. And their Tomorrow: The Tide of Prosperity.

HISTORY BUILDERS.

tain State.

Expressly for The Washington Herald. By DR. E. J. EDWARDS.

After the return of Gen. Grant from with his friends. He was no longer tion: another was George S. Boutwell, who was Secretary of the Treasury un-der Grant, and the third was George F.

The Senator was, when Grant bepearance he seemed to be nearer 60 than 40 years of age. When the Senator re-Senate he was spoken of as having been the oldest-looking young! man when he entered the Senate, and twenty-five years' service in that just bought the family a magnificent au body as the youngest-looking ciderly

There were many who wondered how time he can't resist the temptation to ed during his twenty-five years of serv-think I've done rather well. ice. It was this quality, doubtless, which I've given four cousins and an uncle to caused Gen. Grant to rely so confidently the army, three nephews to the navy upon the counsel and support of Sena- and a sister and two aunts to the Rec Edmunds, I was once told that the Cross organization.-Punch. Senator owed his first appointment to the Senate to a curious circumstance entered the little city of St. Albans, pil-she laged and created consternation until at ist last the courage of the citizens was re-stored and in combination they drove last the courage of the citizens was restored and in combination they drove these raiders back across the water to Canada. At the time it was believed that it was really a Confederate raid, but it was afterward learned that that belief was unfounded.

OPHELIA'S SLATE.

Miss Julia Littell and Miss Heier Haupt. Church, Wednesda at eight o'clock. In the chiffon with pink taffeta jackets and large black hats. They carried pink roses. Mr. Percy Emmert was best man. Mrs. Hunter, mother of the bride, was gowned in white chiffon and wore a black there today of 1 Jones and Lieut.

The United States government took instant action, and the governor of Vercould be retained as counsel for the United States in proceedings against Canada. The Washington government tion with his friends. He was no longer the taciturn man he was known to be man of great ability, the highest integwhen he was in command of the army, rity, and one, too, familiar with internarity and one, too, familiar with internaAmong the guests at the wedding were

Tomorrow Dr. Edwards will tell "Why

Gen. Scott Made His Trip to Europe.

Morning Smiles.

Their System of Measurement. Steve-They say that walters can always size a man up.

Pa's Temptations.

"Pa. with all his money, will never le us take our rightful place in society."
"Why, he's most indulgent. He has Little Miss Margaret Kennedy Ross granddaughter of the bridegroom, was ribbon bearer. Mr. Arthur M. Ross, son of the bridegroom, was best man, and the ushers were Prof. Arthur N.

The Young Man-As a matter of fact, I

The Reason for Sam. He-Sam is going to marry the rich

She-Whaddye mean, "rich?" Why, she was married to that poor numismat-He-Sure. I know. And when he die-he left her all kinds of money .- Penn State Froth. Proof Positive.

Lady Customer-Yes, this is better weather now. Some people think all the rain we had a little time ago was caused by the firing of heavy guns in Belgium. Dressfitter-I don't see how that can be, madam, for I remember we mostly had very fine weather during the South African war.-Punch.

Training Baby.

Yells from the nursery brought the nother, who found the baby gleefully puiling small Billy's curls.
"Never mind, darling," she comforted. Reby doesn't know how it hurts. Half an hour later wild shricks from the baby made her run again to the "Why, Billy:" she cried. "What is the natter with the baby?" "Nothing, muzzer," said Billy, calmly, only now he knows!"—Harper's.

Changes in Personnel. The Department of Commerce an-nounced yesterday the following changes

F. Wellings has been probationally appointed as shop apprent at $450 hs the Bureau of Standards. In the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Matthew Mills has been ap-pointed clerk at $500 by transfer from the Bureau of Fisheries, and Miss Cor-nella W. Marton has been temporarily appointed clerk at $500.

nella W. Marton has been temporarily appointed clerk at 2000.

The attention to the public is called to the fact that, owing to the war, the five-cent postage stamp is required for all letters to Germany.

Tesentative and ars. Jones to have gone down for the occasion, and Representative and Mrs. Jones are entertaining a house party until for all letters to Germany.

Doings of Society

The Italian Ambassador and Countess bridal party, which includes a number Cellere will leave today for Pitch Pine of popular Washington society girls Hall, Beverly Farms, Mass., where the will be established for the sum- Myer.

the charming garden of the cor honor of Rear Admiral Benson, appointed chief of operations of avy and Mrs. Benson, The Marine

Band played throughout the afternoon for dancing, for which a platform was corps assisted in doing the honors.

Alta Vista on the Rockville road.

The marriage of Miss Clarinne Hunter formed contained an improvised altar

The short square train hung the shoulders and had a scalloped edge. Her tulle veil was caught with a band of white velvet and tiny clusters of the valley. Her only ornament was a necklace of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom's family. Miss Ramona Lefevre was maid of honor, and was gowned in pink crepe de chine, with a black picture hat, and carried a bouquet of La France roses. The bridesmaids—

Miss Julia Littell and Miss Helen Haupt

hat trimmed with goura. Mrs. Asa Moore and Miss Schulte assisted, wear-

Mr. and Mrs. Connolly left later in the afternoon for a wedding trip. The bride traveled in a smart black cloth suit with collars and cuffs of black satin em

Among the guests at the wedding were

Mr. and Mrs. Max Kauffmann, Col. and Mrs. Littell, Col. and Mrs. Russell, Count de Serroni, Mrs. N. D. Putnam, of New York: Mr. Robert Maverick, Mrs. George

Moore, Miss Bessie Schulte, and Mrs. Hamilton Kerr, all of New York.

Col. William E. Harvey has arrived

A wedding of interest to Washington took place at St. Anne's Church, Annapolis on Monday afternoon when was married to Rear Admiral Al-church, officiating. The church was decorated with lilacs, laurel, and roses

N. and Mr. H. Oliver Thomps

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of Prof. and Mrs. Arthur N. Brown. Rear Admiral and Mrs. Ross will live at

Lieut. J. S. Haster, U. S. A. and Mrs. Haster are at the Ebbitt for a few days. They arrived yesterday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Russell Pope, of New York, have arrived in Washington for several days and are stopping at the

Mrs. Mackay-Smith and her daughters, the Misses Mackay-Smith, left Washington yesterday by motor for

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hamilton will be hosts at a garden party on Saturday afternoon from 5 to 7:30 o'clock at Stone Ridge, Rockville

Mr. I. T. Mann has arrived at the Shoreham from his place at Bramwell,

Col. and Mrs. Robert M. Thompson are in New York for a few days be-

Mr. and Mrs. Jose A. Sanches, of Mrs. F. S. Bartlett and daughter

Miss F. L. Bartlett, of Olean, N. Y.

An interesting wedding of today will be that of Miss Anne Seymour Jones, daughter of Representative and Mrs. William A. Jones, and Lieut. S. Roland Hopkins, U. S. A., which will take place in St. John's Church, War-saw, Va., and will be followed by a large reception in the garden of Rep-resentative and Mrs. Jones' handsome arrived at the New Willard for fore going to Southampton, L. I.

Havana, are at the New Willard.

dress.

pike, Md.

W. Va.

short stay.

The bridegroom and the bert Ross, U. S. N., retired, the Rev. Dr. Joseph P. McComas, rector of the ing gowns of tan charmeuse and taffeta

Interstate Commerce

Maj. Gen. George Barnett, commandant of the Marine Corps, and Mrs. Barnett spending a few days at the Ebbitt. They entertained at tea yesterday afternoon in Capt. R. F. Taylor, U. S. A., is at the dant's house at the marine barracks in Ebbitt for a stay of several weeks. He arrived yesterday noon. Mr. and Mrs. Raven I. McDavid, of Band played throughout the atternoon for dancing, for which a platform was erected, and ten was served from small tables scattered under the trees and from a large marquee of brilliant colors.

Described with the platform and Miss Sether Hoffman and Miss Sether Hoffman and Miss Sether Hoffman.

Maj. Smitn Alexander, U. S. A.; Mrs.

and Miss Esther Hoffman Mrs. John B. Larner will leave Washington today for Mifflintown, Pa., where she will open her summer home, "Annsfield." Mr. Larner and Miss Ruth Lar-ner will join her within a few days. Countess Gizycka has leased the Thayr cottage at Newport for the sun

Miss Ethel Rose, who is a student at Vassar College, will arrive in Washing-ton this evening to join her parents Mr. and Mrs. Wickliffe Rose, at their resi-

Ensign Chester S. Roberts, U. S. N., and Mrs. Roberts are spending a days in New York.

been visiting in Baltimore, left yesterday for Warsaw, Va., where she will be the guest of Representative and Mrs. William A. Jones until after the

Mrs. James Bloch and Miss Blanche Shoreham to spend some time.

Rev. and Mrs. Stanley Matthews Cleveland, the latter formerly Miss Marian Van Bureu, are in Glendale, N. Y., and are occupying the home of Mr. Cleveland's aunt, Mrs. Horace Gray, who is absent from town at present. Miss Eva Cleveland and Miss Snow, of New York, are with them.

inited States Navy, and Mrs. Roberts. of Washington, are spending a few days in New York City and are stopping at the Wolcott. Mrs. M. S. Fenton, also of Washington, is a guest arine Allwine, daughter of Mr. Charles Everett Lancaster, will take place at the Eastern Presbyterian Church, Wednesday evening, June 16 Wednesday evening, June 16. Miss Katherine Hitchcock has gone to Warsaw, Va., for the marriage there today of Miss Anne Seymour lones and Lieut. S. Roland Hopkins.

The marriage of Miss Annie Cath-

guest of her sister, Mrs. C. J. Bintliff. afternoon in Mrs. Pillsbury's honor Pay Director and Mrs. John N. Speel will leave Washington about July 1 for Rockport, Mass., where they will

The marriage of Miss Annie Margaret Kingley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathanial R. Harnish, and Dr. Dennis John Murphy, will take place this evening at 8 o'clock at Emmanuel P. E. Church, and will be followed by a small recep

An interesting event of last evening setts avenue before going to their morial Home in Vermont avenue. Crosses of honor were bestowed under the direction of Mrs. Gustavius Werber. Col. William E. Harvey has arrived from New York and is stopping at the dren of the Confederacy.

Mr. Claude Bennett delivered the Jefferson Davis Memorial address and Miss Lillian Chenowith sang several pleasing numbers, assisted by the Confederate

The District of Columbia branch of the Congressional Union has arranged a moonlight sail down the Potomac on the evening of June 2. The steamer St. Johns, which has been chartered for decorated with lilacs, laurel, and roses the occasion, and lighted tapers were placed in the street wharf at 7 o'clock, returning at 11. The will be music and dancing on the occasion, and the occasion and the occasi the occasion, will leave the Seventh street wharf at 7 o'clock, returning at riage by her son, Mr. Hartley W. Bart-lett, was gowned in violet satin and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Conneily, of Elmirs. wore a hat of violet orchids. She N. Y., who have been spending some carried a white ivory prayer book. time in Washington, entertained at dinner at the New Willard yesterday a company of twenty-six.

CALLING CARDS? OH. HORRORS! Uncle Sam Will Not Pay for Them, Rules Official.

Uncle Sam will not pay for calling cards purchased by government officials, even though the cards be used Such was the decision handed down yesterday by the Comptroller Treasury in the case of Maj. Langhorne, Fifteenth Cavairy, A., recently military attache in Ber-lin, who some time ago sent in a bill for $24.28 for calling cards. He said difference. Maj. Langhorne must fool

DIES FROM AUTO INJURIES.

Maine, where they will spend the sum-mer at Wild Cliff, their summer home Dr. James T. Walker, Colored, Specumbs at Freedmen's Hospital.

the bill himself.

Dr. James T. Walker, colored physician, living at 600 U street northwest, died at Freedman's Hospital yesterday from in-juries received May 11, when his autocollided with a street car at Georgia avehue and Emerson street northwest. Dr. Walker was riding with Dr. E. P. Beckley, also colored, of 52 U street northwest, and John Jones, their

It was stated at the time of the accident that the brakes of the street car, following behind the automobile, fulled to hold the car as the machine in front slowed down for the corner. A co published in Japan, while Germany the most bookish of European nations ad only 31,281 volumes to her credit.

50c the Ouart.